EASY TO LOVE

TOM JONES

History of Tom Jones, a Foundling
a new play by Erin Woods, based on the classic novel by Henry Fielding, opens May 3rd at Reduxion's Broadway Theater in Oklahoma City and runs through May 25th.

Artistic Director, Tyler Woods, brings this original play to the stage, telling the swash-buckling tale of an irresistible young man with a lust for life and an eye for the ladies. Part romantic comedy, part social commentary, and all action adventure, this spirited and bawdy story swings into Reduxion this May! (In case you were wondering, the singer, Tom Jones, named himself after the handsome hero of this story.) Not for younger audiences, and certainly not to be missed!
